Bicentennial Sports Picture At ACHS

By: Billy Conner

You win some, lose some and some get rained out. These words just about sum up the Bicentennial sports picture at ACHS.

The Raideretts, coached by Mrs. Louise Martin and led by Maryjane Smith, won the Seminole District Basketball Crown. They advanced to the State semi-finals where they lost to Frank Cox, a AAA school from Virginia Beach. Maryjane set a new career district scoring record, 1429 points and captured the ACHS MVP award. Coach Martin was voted Coach of Year in Virginia, Coach of Year in District 8, and was one of seven nominated for National Coach of Year honors. Her years at ACHS will long be remembered for she was a winner on and off the courts.

Tennis entered the sports schedule in Appomattox for the first time under Coach Plicky Williams. Both girls and boys teams battled hard and although they had a losing season, they gained experience and will be looking for those wins this year. Susan Smith and Mike Jarrells were most valuable players in this sport.

The golf team under Coach Jerry Robinson just about broke even in regular season play and took fifth place in the District tournament. MVP Jerry Conner advanced to Regional Competition where he captured fifth place individual honors.

The Raideretts, with an 8 - 3 record in softball, were co-champions in the Seminole District. Their big disappointment came in the form of a 15 - 13 loss to Rustburg in the District tournament. Coach Mary Tolley won Coach of the Year honors, and Connie Murray, Maryjane Smith and Mary Jane Smith were All District.

The baseball team did not enjoy the success that some of the others did, however several players were honored by their selection to the All District squad. Mitch Eggleston, ACHS MVP was voted to the second team all-district at the first base position. Andy Wingfield received honorable mention for his ability behind the plate and Ronald Harvey also received honorable mention as an out-fielder.

Beginning a new school year in September, the Raiderettes got off to a good start by winning the Brookville Invitational Volleyball Tournament under new Coach Lucy Harris. They went on to an excellent season, losing only one regular season game, to Liberty. Playing in the District Tournament against the same teams they had overpowered in the Brookville Invitational, they were defeated by Amherst County, who later lost to Liberty in the finals. Marie Fraley, Connie Murray and Jan Stanley were named to the second team All District.

Coach Sam Martin inherited the Cross Country team and immediately ran into problems, Brookville, Nelson, etc. They did not have a winning season but with only one senior on the team, things look brighter for next year.

The Raider football team, under Coach Larry Carter, came very close to winning the District Championship but had to settle for a tie for second. An estimated 5000 fans crowded into Bragg Stadium to witness the battle for the championship between The Raiders and the Rustburg Red Devils. Rustburg dominated play in the first half and seemed a sure winner when they went to the locker room with a 13 - 0 lead. The Raiders struck with two touchdown early in the third quarter and held on to a 14 - 13 lead until late in the game. After a Raider fumble on the Red Devil 15 yard line Rustburg went to the air and scored the winning touchdown with about three minutes remaining defeating the Raiders 19 - 13. The Raiders only other District loss came at the hands of Brookville which also went to the air late in the fourth quarter and scored on a 50 yard play and two point conversion to win 8 - 7. Phillip Jamerson won District Lineman of the Year honors. William "Boo Boo" Trent was voted District Back of the Year. Tom "Turk" Wingfield made All District Defensive End, Mitch Eggleston was All District, Punter, Bennett Paulette was All District Center and William Perdue was All District Offensive Tackle.

A VERY GOOD YEAR.

Members of the Xi Gamma Tau chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, attended the opening meeting of the Conway Diet Institute held last Wednday at 7 p.m. at Fidelity Branch Bank, Appomatox.

Following a weigh-in, new members of the Institute were given copies of the Conway 1,000 calorie diet and discussed ways to success with the new program which incorporates nutritious food plus weekly seminars on the "whys and hows" of taking off weight and keeping it off permanently.

Silver pins bearing the Conway symbol of a slim figure emerging from an overweight figure, were shown to the group. A display of food labels from appropriate foods was in the meeting room.

Two out-of-town visitors to the meeting were Mrs. Colleen Adams, of Richmond, field director for Conway Institute and her son Brad, who accompanied her over some icy roads to arrive in Appomattox.

The Conway meeting closed with an invitation from the lecturer for the new members to invite friends with a similar interest in losing weight to attend this week's meeting. Mrs. Stimpson phone number is 376-2608.

Carl Miller Attended Merchandise Show

Carl Miller, manager of the White's Auto Store in Appomattox, attended the semi-annual company merchandise show held at the Atlanta Hilton, Atlanta, Ga. January 9-11.

Highlighting the show was the introduction of the new lawn and garden lines, and the new brand name program featuring major appliances. White's dealers will now be able to offer Kelvinator, Speed Queen, and B. F. Goodrich to their customers. Company officials predict this program, aided by one of the most complete lines of lawn and garden and seasonal items anywhere will prove to be one of the most successful ever-launched by the chain. Mr. Miller also viewed the new items in the well rounded blend of housewares, automotive, sporting goods, toys, hardware, tires, giftware, and electronics offered by White's.

During the show, Miller was invited to attend clinics on Kelvinator, Speed Queen, B. F. Goodrich, C. B. radios, and White tires.
